HOUSE BILL NO. 1523
(As Passed the House)

1 AN ACT TO CREATE THE "PROTECTING FREEDOM OF CONSCIENCE FROM
2 GOVERNMENT DISCRIMINATION ACT"; TO PROVIDE CERTAIN PROTECTIONS
3 REGARDING A SINCERELY HELD RELIGIOUS BELIEF OR MORAL CONVICTION
4 FOR PERSONS, RELIGIOUS ORGANIZATIONS AND PRIVATE ASSOCIATIONS; TO 5 DEFINE A DISCRIMINATORY ACTION FOR PURPOSES OF THIS ACT; TO 6 PROVIDE THAT A PERSON MAY ASSERT A VIOLATION OF THIS ACT AS A
7 CLAIM AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT; TO PROVIDE CERTAIN REMEDIES; TO 8 REQUIRE A PERSON BRINGING A CLAIM UNDER THIS ACT TO DO SO NOT 9 LATER THAN TWO YEARS AFTER THE DISCRIMINATORY ACTION WAS TAKEN; TO 10 PROVIDE CERTAIN DEFINITIONS; AND FOR RELATED PURPOSES.

11 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI:

12 SECTION 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the 13 "Protecting Freedom of Conscience from Government Discrimination
14 Act."

15 SECTION 2. The sincerely held religious beliefs or moral
16 convictions protected by this act are the belief or conviction
17 that:

18 (a) Marriage is or should be recognized as the union of 19 one man and one woman;

20 (b) Sexual relations are properly reserved to such a
21 marriage; and

(c) Male (man) or female (woman) refer to an individual's immutable biological sex as objectively determined by anatomy and genetics at time of birth.

SECTION 3. (1) The state government shall not take any discriminatory action against a religious organization wholly or partially on the basis that such organization:

(a) Solemnizes or declines to solemnize any marriage, or provides or declines to provide services, accommodations, facilities, goods or privileges for a purpose related to the solemnization, formation, celebration or recognition of any marriage, based upon or in a manner consistent with a sincerely held religious belief or moral conviction described in Section 2 of this act;

(b) Makes any employment-related decision, including but not limited to, the decision whether or not to hire, terminate or discipline an individual whose conduct or religious beliefs are inconsistent with those of the religious organization, based upon or in a manner consistent with a sincerely held religious belief or moral conviction described in Section 2 of this act; or

(c) Makes any decision concerning the sale, rental, occupancy of, or terms and conditions of occupying a dwelling or other housing under its control, based upon or in a manner consistent with a sincerely held religious belief or moral conviction described in Section 2 of this act.

46 (2) The state government shall not take any discriminatory
47 action against a religious organization that advertises, provides 48 or facilitates adoption or foster care, wholly or partially on the 49 basis that such organization has provided or declined to provide 50 any adoption or foster care service, or related service, based 51 upon or in a manner consistent with a sincerely held religious 52 belief or moral conviction described in Section 2 of this act.

53 (3) The state government shall not take any discriminatory
54 action against a person who the state grants custody of a foster
55 or adoptive child, or who seeks from the state custody of a foster
56 or adoptive child, wholly or partially on the basis that the 57 person guides, instructs or raises a child, or intends to guide,
58 instruct, or raise a child based upon or in a manner consistent
59 with a sincerely held religious belief or moral conviction
60 described in Section 2 of this act.

61 (4) The state government shall not take any discriminatory
62 action against a person wholly or partially on the basis that the
63 person declines to participate in the provision of treatments,
64 counseling, or surgeries related to sex reassignment or gender
65 identity transitioning or declines to participate in the provision
66 of psychological, counseling, or fertility services based upon a 67 sincerely held religious belief or moral conviction described in 68 Section 2 of this act. This subsection (4) shall not be construed
69 to allow any person to deny visitation, recognition of a
70 designated representative for health care decision-making, or

71 emergency medical treatment necessary to cure an illness or injury
72 as required by law.

73 (5) The state government shall not take any discriminatory
74 action against a person wholly or partially on the basis that the 75 person has provided or declined to provide the following services,
76 accommodations, facilities, goods, or privileges for a purpose
77 related to the solemnization, formation, celebration, or 78 recognition of any marriage, based upon or in a manner consistent
79 with a sincerely held religious belief or moral conviction
80 described in Section 2 of this act:

81 (a) Photography, poetry, videography, disc-jockey
82 services, wedding planning, printing, publishing or similar 83 marriage-related goods or services; or

84 (b) Floral arrangements, dress making, cake or pastry
85 artistry, assembly-hall or other wedding-venue rentals, limousine
86 or other car-service rentals, jewelry sales and services, or 87 similar marriage-related services, accommodations, facilities or 88 goods.

89 (6) The state government shall not take any discriminatory
90 action against a person wholly or partially on the basis that the 91 person establishes sex-specific standards or policies concerning 92 employee or student dress or grooming, or concerning access to 93 restrooms, spas, baths, showers, dressing rooms, locker rooms, or 94 other intimate facilities or settings, based upon or in a manner

consistent with a sincerely held religious belief or moral conviction described in Section 2 of this act.

(7) The state government shall not take any discriminatory action against a state employee wholly or partially on the basis that such employee lawfully speaks or engages in expressive conduct based upon or in a manner consistent with a sincerely held religious belief or moral conviction described in Section 2 of this act, so long as:

(a) If the employee's speech or expressive conduct occurs in the workplace, that speech or expressive conduct is consistent with the time, place, manner and frequency of any other expression of a religious, political, or moral belief or conviction allowed; or

(b) If the employee's speech or expressive conduct occurs outside the workplace, that speech or expressive conduct is in the employee's personal capacity and outside the course of performing work duties.

(8) (a) Any person employed or acting on behalf of the state government who has authority to authorize or license marriages, including, but not limited to, clerks, registers of deeds or their deputies, may seek recusal from authorizing or licensing lawful marriages based upon or in a manner consistent with a sincerely held religious belief or moral conviction described in Section 2 of this act. Any person making such recusal shall provide prior written notice to the State Registrar of Vital Records who shall keep a record of such recusal, and the state government shall not take any discriminatory action against that person wholly or partially on the basis of such recusal. The person who is recusing himself or herself shall take all necessary steps to ensure that the authorization and licensing of any legally valid marriage is not impeded or delayed as a result of any recusal.

(b) Any person employed or acting on behalf of the state government who has authority to perform or solemnize marriages, including, but not limited to, judges, magistrates, justices of the peace or their deputies, may seek recusal from performing or solemnizing lawful marriages based upon or in a manner consistent with a sincerely held religious belief or moral conviction described in Section 2 of this act. Any person making such recusal shall provide prior written notice to the Administrative Office of Courts, and the state government shall not take any discriminatory action against that person wholly or partially on the basis of such recusal. The Administrative Office of Courts shall take all necessary steps to ensure that the performance or solemnization of any legally valid marriage is not impeded or delayed as a result of any recusal.

SECTION 4. (1) As used in this act, discriminatory action includes any action taken by the state government to:

(a) Alter in any way the tax treatment of, or cause any tax, penalty, or payment to be assessed against, or deny, delay,

145 revoke, or otherwise make unavailable an exemption from taxation
146 of any person referred to in Section 3 of this act;

147 (b) Disallow, deny or otherwise make unavailable a
148 deduction for state tax purposes of any charitable contribution
149 made to or by such person;

150 (c) Withhold, reduce, exclude, terminate, materially
151 alter the terms or conditions of, or otherwise make unavailable or
152 deny any state grant, contract, subcontract, cooperative
153 agreement, guarantee, loan, scholarship, or other similar benefit
154 from or to such person;

155 (d) Withhold, reduce, exclude, terminate, materially
156 alter the terms or conditions of, or otherwise make unavailable or 157 deny any entitlement or benefit under a state benefit program from 158 or to such person;

159 (e) Impose, levy or assess a monetary fine, fee,
160 penalty or injunction;

161 (f) Withhold, reduce, exclude, terminate, materially
162 alter the terms or conditions of, or otherwise make unavailable or 163 deny any license, certification, accreditation, custody award or 164 agreement, diploma, grade, recognition, or other similar benefit,
165 position, or status from or to any person; or

166 (g) Refuse to hire or promote, force to resign, fire,
167 demote, sanction, discipline, materially alter the terms or 168 conditions of employment, or retaliate or take other adverse employment action against a person employed or commissioned by the state government.

(2) The state government shall consider accredited, licensed or certified any person that would otherwise be accredited, licensed or certified, respectively, for any purposes under state law but for a determination against such person wholly or partially on the basis that the person believes, speaks or acts in accordance with a sincerely held religious belief or moral conviction described in Section 2 of this act.

SECTION 5. (1) A person may assert a violation of this act as a claim against the state government in any judicial or administrative proceeding or as defense in any judicial or administrative proceeding without regard to whether the proceeding is brought by or in the name of the state government, any private person or any other party.

(2) An action under this act may be commenced, and relief may be granted, in a court of the state without regard to whether the person commencing the action has sought or exhausted available administrative remedies.

(3) Violations of this act which are properly governed by Chapter 46, Title 11, Mississippi Code of 1972, shall be brought in accordance with that chapter.

SECTION 6. Any person who successfully asserts a claim or defense under this act may recover:

(a) Declaratory relief;

(b) Injunctive relief to prevent or remedy a violation of this act or the effects of such a violation;

(c) Compensatory damages for pecuniary and nonpecuniary losses;

(d) Reasonable attorneys' fees and costs; and

(e) Any other appropriate relief except only declaratory relief and injunctive relief shall be available against a private person not acting under color of state law upon a successful assertion of a claim or defense under this act.

SECTION 7. A person must bring an action to assert a claim under this act not later than two (2) years after the date that the person knew or should have known that a discriminatory action was taken against that person.

SECTION 8. (1) Sovereign, governmental and qualified immunities to suit and from liability are waived and abolished to the extent of liability created by Section 6 of this act, and a person may sue the state government, except state courts, for damages allowed by Section 6 of this act.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (2) of this section, this section does not waive or abolish sovereign immunity to suit and from liability under the Eleventh Amendment to the United States Constitution.

SECTION 9. (1) This act shall be construed in favor of a broad protection of free exercise of religious beliefs and moral convictions, to the maximum extent permitted by the state and federal constitutions.

(2) The protection of free exercise of religious beliefs and moral convictions afforded by this act are in addition to the protections provided under federal law, state law, and the state and federal constitutions. Nothing in this act shall be construed to preempt or repeal any state or local law that is equally or more protective of free exercise of religious beliefs or moral convictions. Nothing in this act shall be construed to narrow the meaning or application of any state or local law protecting free exercise of religious beliefs or moral convictions. Nothing in this act shall be construed to prevent the state government from providing, either directly or through an individual or entity not seeking protection under this act, any benefit or service authorized under state law.

(3) This act applies to, and in cases of conflict supersedes, each statute of the state that impinges upon the free exercise of religious beliefs and moral convictions protected by this act, unless a conflicting statute is expressly made exempt from the application of this act. This act also applies to, and in cases of conflict supersedes, any ordinance, rule, regulation, order, opinion, decision, practice or other exercise of the state government's authority that impinges upon the free exercise of religious beliefs or moral convictions protected by this act.

SECTION 10.

As used in Section 1 through 9 of this act, the following words and phrases shall have the meanings ascribed in this section unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:
